

GREATER LAFAYETTE HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE COMMITTEE

Gedalyah Engel Education Award

ADMINISTERED BY THE ACKERMAN CENTER FOR DEMOCRATIC CITIZENSHIP

A grant opportunity for area educators for projects that address issues related to genocide, discrimination, bullying, human rights, the Holocaust, or lessons to be learned from the Holocaust:

Apply for funding, for example, to

- travel to Holocaust sites in Poland
- enroll in an online class on genocide
- study human rights in a class on campus
- create an oral history project with your students
- bring a speaker to your school
- initiate a diversity club at your school
- take a field trip to a Holocaust museum
- reach out to other students with an anti-bullying campaign
- start a Holocaust book club at your school

A total of $2000 will be awarded to individuals or teams of educators currently teaching in schools in Tippecanoe or contiguous counties. Proposals must reflect the goals of the Greater Lafayette Holocaust Remembrance Committee.

Applications are due Wednesday, January 31, 2024

Contact Anne Murphy-Kline, Assistant Director, Ackerman Center for Democratic Citizenship, at amurphyk@purdue.edu for details and a proposal form.