February 2004

Dear Friend:

Join us for The Greater Lafayette Holocaust Remembrance Committee's 23rd Annual Greater Lafayette Holocaust Remembrance Conference, "Antisemitism & Terrorism", Saturday, March 27, 2004, in Matthews Hall 210, Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN.

The topic has special meaning for Americans and the world since the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks in New York City, Pennsylvania, and at the Pentagon in Washington, DC.

Two Holocaust Survivors, Eva Kor of Terra Haute, whose C.A.N.D.L.E.S. Museum was recently burned to the ground and Hart Hasten of Indianapolis, author of I Shall Not Die will talk as will University of Michigan Professor Zvi Gitelman, authority on Anti-Semitism. Come, ask questions.

Saturday night, March 27, the Mayors, Tony Roswarski & Jan Mills, share their Proclamation, followed by a memorial-tribute to Holocaust Victims and Antisemitism casualties.

The attached program is your invitation to participate in a Saturday of FREE events. In addition, there is a Saturday, Hebrew National Deli SUPPER, cost below. The conference, brings together high school and college students, faculty, and community. It is supported by local businesses and you. Your contribution helps fund this Conference.

Join us for any or all activities.

Share the enclosed schedule. Post it! Spread the word about our human rights conference. Please complete the form below for , meal reservations, book purchases, and/or your contribution. Shalom,
