

“Expressing the Inexpressible”

Reckoning with the Holocaust through Visual Art, Music, and Drama

2022 Greater Lafayette Holocaust Remembrance Conference

Ackerman Center for Democratic Citizenship

Educator Workshop

Monday, April 4, 2022 5:00 – 8:00 pm

The educator workshop will be a hands-on experience focused on bringing the arts into the classroom to deepen our understanding of the Holocaust. We will hear a survivor explain how art has helped him process his own Holocaust experience, and we will participate in activities that promote reckoning with the inexpressible through the arts.

Strategies shared will be appropriate for upper elementary through high school and for use in any content area.

Presenters and Hands-on Experiences Led by:

Tibor Spitz, Holocaust Survivor and Artist

will share over Zoom how art has helped him heal

Camden Ritchie - Music

Engel Award Winner 2021 & Music Educator at Southwestern MS

Stella Schafer - Drama

USHMM Teacher Fellow & ELA/Holocaust Educator at McCutcheon HS

Melissa Frey – Visual Art

Executive Director, Purdue Hillel Center & Graphic Designer

REGISTER BY MARCH 20th

To respect our presenters' time and effort, please register only if you are certain you plan to attend. Workshop will be cancelled if we do not reach minimum registration.

Registration at <http://glhrc.org/educators.html> or scan:

No cost workshop funded by the

Ackerman Center—Earn 3 PGPs

Dinner provided by Bauer Family Subway

Purdue University, Lawson Building Room 1142

University St. and 3rd St.; Free parking in University Garage

Presented in Conjunction with the 2022 Engel Lecture

Tibor and Noemi Spitz April 7th 2022, 6:00 pm EST via Zoom

Register at: glhrc.org

College of Education