

WHAT HAS A MAN WITH A 'GENOCIDAL MACHETE' GOT TO DO WITH A BELGIAN MILITARY OFFICER?: COMMONALITIES AND DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE HUTU GENOCIDE IN BURUNDI (1972) AND TUTSI GENOCIDE IN RWANDA (1994)

February 15
5:30 PM

Krannert
Auditorium

DR. JEANINE NTIHIRAGEZA

SPEAKER

Dr. Ntahirageza is the founding director of the Center for Genocide and Human Rights Research in Africa and the Diaspora (GHRAD) and a full professor at Northeastern Illinois University. She has helped lead a team collecting oral testimony with genocide survivors in Burundi. Dr. Ntahirageza is herself a survivor of the 1972 Hutu Genocide in Burundi.

Department of History